General Information

Brief History

Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary (MABTS) began in the fall of 1971 as “The School of the Prophets” by a charter granted by the state of Louisiana. The purpose of the school was to provide theological education for those whom God called to vocational Christian service. By action of the Board of Trustees, the location of the school was changed to Little Rock, Arkansas, and the school name was changed to Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary. A charter was granted by the state of Arkansas in March 1972, and the first session of classes began with Founders’ Days, August 23–25, 1972. Four professors offered classes to 28 students. The Seminary conducted classes for three years in the facilities of Olivet Baptist Church, Little Rock, Arkansas.

In 1975, the Seminary negotiated the purchase of the Reformed Jewish Temple and Hebrew School located at 1255 Poplar Avenue in Memphis, Tennessee. The Seminary conducted classes during the 1975–1976 school term in Bellevue Baptist Church in Memphis, Tennessee. The purchase of the Temple and Hebrew School was finalized in August 1976, and the Seminary moved into the new debt-free facilities in October 1976. In 1982, the Seminary purchased the adjoining property at 1257 Poplar, which housed the Ora Byram Allison Memorial Library and an administration building.

In 1994, friends of the Seminary made available an eight-acre campus in Germantown, Tennessee. The Seminary renovated the facilities, and in January 1996, moved to the new campus debt-free. The campus provided classrooms, offices, library, a chapel, a cafeteria, a gym, a bookstore, childcare facilities, lounges, and resource rooms under one roof. In addition, the campus provided a pleasant, welcoming environment for learning. The move to the Germantown campus allowed the Seminary to expand its course offerings into the evenings and provide more opportunities for the wives of students to enroll in classes and be involved in seminary life.

In 1996, a group of concerned and committed men formed Mid-America Student Housing, Inc., a 501 (c) not-for-profit corporation for the purpose of providing student housing. A dear friend of the Seminary donated 32 acres for housing that was only 15 minutes from the Seminary in Olive Branch, Mississippi. The first 100 units of student housing opened in August 1998.

In fall 2003, Mid-America’s next-door neighbor, Methodist Hospital, approached the Seminary with an offer to purchase the Germantown campus. After numerous negotiations, Methodist Hospital purchased the campus in December of that year while allowing Mid-America to use the campus for up to four years, rent free, until a new campus could be built. In June 2004, the people of Bellevue Baptist Church, led by their pastor—the late Dr. Adrian Rogers—voted to give Mid-America 35 acres of land across Appling Road from Bellevue Baptist Church as Mid-America’s new home.

Construction began in spring 2005 and was completed in August 2006, in time for Founders’ Days and the beginning of the 2006 fall term. Soon after Mid-America received the gift of land, 16 additional acres of land were purchased adjacent to the Appling Road property as the site for Mid-America’s student housing. Construction of student housing was conducted concurrently with the campus construction and was also completed by fall 2006.

From the beginning of Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary, the administration and faculty have desired to establish a Bible-believing, Bible-preaching, Bible-teaching, soul-winning campus in the northeastern part of the United States. In 1987, the Northeast campus was approved by the Board of Regents of the State of New York to offer the master of divinity degree. The Seminary purchased 10 acres in the heart of the Capital District in the state of New York in February 1988, constructed a 15,400 square foot building, and started classes in the fall of 1989. The focus of the Northeast campus is to train pastors for evangelism, church planting, and serving Southern Baptist churches throughout this heavily populated and strategic area of America.

In the fall of 2016, the Seminary administration began to prayerfully consider the possibility of establishing a college which would be academically excellent, affordable, Christ-centered, and ministry focused. In the spring of 2017, the Board of Trustees voted unanimously to start The College at Mid-America as a school of Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary.

Accreditation

Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award associate, bachelor, master, and doctoral degrees. For questions about the accreditation of Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary, contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia, 30033-4097, or call 404-679-4500.

Northeast Campus Accreditation

The Northeast campus is also accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges and registered by the Board of Regents of the State of New York. The master of divinity degree is registered with the Board of Regents as the Master of Divinity in Divinity (HEGIS #2301.10). The master of arts degree is registered with the Board of Regents as the Master of Arts in Theology (HEGIS #2301.00) and the Master of Arts in Christian Education (HEGIS #2301.00). The Certificate Program is registered with the Board of Regents as the Certificate in Ministry Preparation (HEGIS #5623.00). The associate program is registered with the Board of Regents as the Associate of Occupational Studies (HEGIS #5623.00).

Our Purpose

The College at Mid-America is the undergraduate school of Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary. As such, it functions under the mission statement of Mid-America Seminary.

The primary purpose of Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary is to provide graduate theological training for effective service in church-related and missions vocations through its main campus and designated branch campuses. Undergraduate training is also offered for effective Christian leadership in various fields. Other levels of training are also offered.

Within the mission of Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary, the purpose of The College at Mid-America is to conduct associate and baccalaureate programs to prepare students to take their place as effective Christian leaders in their chosen professions, who serve with integrity, intelligence, and compassion.

Mid-America attempts to guide students into a thorough understanding of the Bible and its relevance for today, preparing those who have been called of God to preach and teach the Word of God. Further preparation is offered through instruction in preaching, counseling, education, and cross-cultural ministry. In addition, all students are encouraged to be involved in churches during their college days.

In response to the distinct training needs among Southern Baptists, the Seminary offers the following programs: associate, bachelor of arts, bachelor of science, master of arts, master of divinity, doctor of ministry, and doctor of philosophy. The following degrees are offered at the Northeast campus: associate of occupational studies, master of arts, and master of divinity. A certificate program is also available to students attending the Northeast campus.

Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary desires to glorify Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior. This purpose is achieved by:

- Teaching the Bible as the verbally-inspired Word of God, wholly without error as originally given by God, and sufficient as our infallible rule of faith and practice;
- Maintaining high academic standards and promoting reverent scholarship;
- Teaching that people should be faithful in the Lord's service through the local church;
- Demonstrating the fruit of the Spirit as His gifts are exercised; and
- Training people to do evangelism at home and cross-culturally.

Articles of Religious Belief

Article I: The Bible

We believe that the Bible is the verbally inspired Word of God, wholly without error as originally given by God, and is sufficient as our only infallible rule of faith and practice. We deny that other books are inspired by God in the same way as the Bible. Please see the position paper following the Articles of Religious Belief.

Article II: God

We believe in the one true and living God, the Creator and Sustainer of all things. He is infinite, eternal, unchangeable, and is revealed to us as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The Father is the head of the Godhead, and into His hands the kingdom shall be delivered. The Son is the promised Messiah of the Old Testament, Jesus Christ, who was born of the Virgin Mary, hence the God-Man. He died on the cross to redeem man, rose again from the dead to justify the believer, ascended to the right hand of God where He intercedes for us, and in the Father's own time will return in visible, personal form to overthrow sin and judge the world. The Holy Spirit is the One sent from God to convict the world of sin, of righteousness, of judgment, and to regenerate and cleanse from sin. He is the resident guide, teacher, and strengthener of the believer.

Article III: Satan and Sinful Man

We believe that man was created innocent, that he was tempted by Satan, and that man sinned; because of this action, men have been born in sin since that time and are by nature the children of wrath. We believe that Satan is a personal devil who with his angels carries on the work of iniquity in this world. Sin is basically rebellion against God, and the end of sin is eternal separation from God.

Article IV: Salvation

We believe that Jesus Christ is the only Savior from sin. He atoned for our sins on the cross and rose again for our justification. Apart from Jesus Christ there is no salvation. All men are under condemnation through personal sin, and escape from condemnation comes only through the righteousness of Jesus Christ. This righteousness is imputed to the believer by grace through faith. The Holy Spirit regenerates the one who makes the life commitment to Jesus, and the life begun in regeneration is never lost.

Article V: Resurrection

We believe in the final resurrection of all men, just and unjust. We believe that those who commit their lives to Jesus Christ during this life will be raised to everlasting life, but those who are not committed to Jesus Christ in this life will be raised to everlasting condemnation.

Article VI: The Church

We believe that a New Testament church is a voluntary association of baptized believers in Christ who have covenanted together to follow the teachings of the New Testament in doctrine, worship, and practice. We believe that the only two church ordinances are baptism and the Lord's Supper. We likewise believe that only those who are committed to Jesus Christ as Lord are scriptural subjects for baptism and that immersion is the only proper mode of baptism. We believe that the Lord's Supper is a memorial to the Lord's death. The bread symbolizes His body that was given for us, while the fruit of the vine symbolizes His blood that was shed for us. We believe that a church is a democratic organization served by two types of officers: pastors or bishops and deacons.

Article VII: Civil Government

We believe that God established civil government. We likewise believe in the complete separation of church and state.

Article VIII: Baptist Distinctives

We are Baptists because we believe that Baptists stand for distinctive truths to which other denominations do not adhere. We believe that we cannot compromise these truths without being disloyal to our Lord and to His Word. We do seek to cooperate with all others who are committed to Jesus Christ as Lord.

Addendum: To Be Signed by All Professors

I do solemnly promise and engage not to inculcate, sanction, teach, or insinuate anything that shall contradict or contravene—either directly or implicitly—any element of the foregoing statement of religious beliefs. Now, therefore, the undersigned in the presence of God declares that he or she consents, agrees, and binds himself or herself to all of the foregoing without any reservation whatsoever. He or she further agrees that he or she will immediately notify in writing the administration of the Seminary should a change of any kind take place in his or her belief that is not in accord with this statement.

Mid-America Advisory Council

The Mid-America Advisory Council consists of Christian vocational workers from churches throughout the United States. The Advisory Council offers suggestions and counsel concerning the training projected by Mid-America. In addition, the Advisory Council advises and aids in the continuing development of methods, means, and facilities for implementing the programs of Mid-America.

Buildings and Facilities

Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary and The College at Mid-America are conveniently located at 2095 Appling Road, Cordova, Tennessee.

The building complex includes an auditorium that seats 1,100 people, executive offices, administrative offices, faculty offices, classrooms, doctoral carrels, seminar rooms, bookstore, banquet room, cafeteria, gym, missions room, preaching chapel, and the Ora Byram Allison Memorial Library. The library houses the main library collection and offices, microfilm and microfiche center, and an audiovisual aids center. Campus housing is located adjacent to the main campus, across Goodlett Farms Parkway.

The Ora Byram Allison Memorial Library

Dedicated in August 1979 as the academic core of Mid-America, the Ora Byram Allison Memorial Library is committed to the mission of the Seminary by developing, providing, and maintaining facilities, materials, and services for the academic programs. The Allison Library extends those services to the entire seminary community both traditional and distance—students, faculty, staff, alumni, local Southern Baptist pastors, and missionaries on furlough. Located in a separate wing west of the chapel, the Allison Library includes a spacious circulation and browsing area, periodical and reference rooms with adjacent study rooms, and a separate space for materials on microfiche. The stacks area accommodates all current circulating collection—books, DVDs, CDs, and books on microfiche—with additional space for growth up to 200,000 volumes. Dividing the periodical and reference rooms from the general collections are offices for technical processing and library staff. Over 200,000 items are available, plus over 10,000 periodicals through print or electronic subscriptions. Neighboring libraries have entered into cooperative, reciprocal agreements with Mid-America to allow the seminary community to use their facilities and materials via membership in the Memphis Area Library Council. These libraries include the University of Memphis, Memphis Theological Seminary, Harding Graduate School of Religion, and the Memphis-Shelby County Public Library and Information Center.

Student Religious Emphases

Founders' Days

Mid-America starts each school year with Founders' Days. At the beginning of the fall semester, family and friends gather for fellowship, worship, and Bible preaching. These services of inspiration and challenge are an essential part of the educational experience of Mid-America.

Chapel Services

Chapel services are held on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Tuesday chapels are devoted to personal witnessing testimonies by faculty and students. Thursday chapel services include preaching by faculty, pastors, Christian theologians, and biblical scholars. Such worship, inspiration, and Bible preaching make a lasting contribution to the spiritual development of students and are an integral part of the total training program.

Missionary Days

Missionary Days are designed to promote an understanding of and commitment to Southern Baptist mission work. Outstanding field missionaries and missions leaders present the challenges and opportunities of both international and home mission fields. During these services, students are invited to make public commitments to serve as missionaries.

Campus Revival

Each year the faculty and students take time for a special season of spiritual renewal and commitment. In these refreshing times of prayer and revival preaching, members of the school are challenged to renewed personal devotion to Christ, holiness of life, and evangelistic fervor.

Student Organizations and Programs

Student Body Association

The Student Body Association is composed of all students at Mid-America during any given semester. The association meets periodically to implement projects and programs developed through the Student Council.

Student Council

The Student Council is composed of elected and appointed representatives from the student body with the director of Campus Life appointed as advisor. The council is governed by its own constitution and functions as a service organization. It meets as often as is necessary to discuss student problems, needs, and programs, and makes recommendations to the Student Body Association. The Student Council promotes fellowship and recreation among the students and assists students through the Student Relief Fund, as funds are available. Additional information regarding the Student Council is published in the Student Supplement and Housing Handbook.

Student Relief Fund

Students participate in an ongoing ministry of compassion and care to fellow students through the Student Relief Fund. Each Tuesday and Thursday following chapel, students may contribute to this fund, which is administered by the Student Council and assists with emergencies and special needs of students.

Student Representation on Committees

It is the policy and practice of Mid-America to include student representation on committees that are concerned with the planning, implementation, and evaluation of the College's programs. Student Council representatives serve on the student disciplinary committee and make recommendations to the Student Aid and Scholarship Committee in addition to other committees as appointed by the dean of the College.

The Mid-America Alumni Association

The Mid-America Alumni Association is a national organization with state and regional chapters. The Association informs the alumni about current news, promotes continued alumni involvement in the life of Mid-America, and provides fellowship for the alumni. The national Alumni Association reception is held each year in connection with Founders' Days. Alumni fellowship meetings are held at the annual state Baptist convention meetings throughout the United States.

Authorization for Special Appeals

Permission must be secured from the administration for any special appeals for needs such as money, clothes, and food. Inquiries concerning such appeals should be made to the director of Campus Life.

Student Assistance Services

Campus Life

Campus Life assists students by providing information on available housing, employment, health services, children's schooling, and day care, as well as other general information. Campus Life provides assistance for students who have personal and/or emergency financial needs.

Mid-America Student Housing (MASH)

Mid-America Student Housing is located at 1975 E. Beaman Circle, which is part of the main campus. The community building plus 144 apartments, one playground, and a multi-purpose recreational field make up MASH. Arrangements for housing are made through Campus Life. Rent for unfurnished apartments ranges from $566.00 to $750.00 monthly. Campus Life can assist students in locating other housing.

MASH also offers room rates for undergraduate housing. These dorm style apartments include furniture and utilities; however, roommates are assigned. The single room consists of a personal room and a shared bathroom. The master room consists of a personal room and a personal bathroom. Dorm apartments are not configured to house more than three students at a time. The lease for a dorm apartment is for 10 months (August–May). A single room is $340.00 monthly. The rate for a master room is $360.00 monthly.

Church Relations Office

The Church Relations office serves as a liaison between churches and students. This office maintains contact with local churches, making them aware of opportunities for church staff employment. Search committees representing churches are provided with resumes for their consideration, and those needing pastors or staff are introduced to students and graduates of Mid-America. Special attention is given to help graduating students find church-related vocational service. Students are encouraged to seek counsel with the director of Church Relations and to maintain a current resume for referral.

Career Counseling and Planning

The director of Church Relations counsels students regarding career planning. Within the context of God's calling, students receive counsel concerning ministry opportunities as pastors, associate pastors, education ministers, ministers to children, youth ministers, church planting, and missionary work. Before graduating, each student is encouraged to schedule a personal interview for assistance.

Student Assistance

Off-Campus Employment

Mid-America is happy to assist students and their spouses seeking information or making application for off-campus employment. Campus Life maintains a current job opportunities listing.

On-Campus Employment

On-campus employment is available for a limited number of students and spouses from time to time, including work in administrative offices, campus maintenance, and the library. Requests for information and applications for on-campus employment are made through the human resources office.

Insurance

Mid-America encourages students to secure adequate health and life insurance coverage. An insurance packet from GuideStone Financial Resources is available at the beginning of fall and spring semesters.

Health Needs

A list of family physicians and dentists is available to students seeking medical services. Information may be secured from Campus Life.

Household Goods and Clothes Closet

From time to time, appliances and furniture are made available to Mid-America students at no cost. A clothes closet is maintained in the community building at MASH for the convenience of student families. Information may be secured from Campus Life.

Tuition and Student Aid

Financial Support

Mid-America is operated through funds received from student tuition and fees, endowment income, income from wills and trusts, direct gifts from interested individuals, and designated gifts from churches to the general scholarship fund. Our low tuition is made possible through the regular gifts of individuals and churches that include Mid-America in their budget as a direct missions project. Mid-America welcomes support from those who are interested. The annual cost of education for one student exceeds $21,000.00. Students who participate in the GO! Program pay approximately $8,000.00 of this amount. In effect, the student's education is underwritten by friends of Mid-America at the equivalent of a scholarship of over $13,000.00 each year.

The Office of Financial Aid

Scholarships

There are currently a variety of scholarships available to beginning students. Some scholarships are based on merit and some are based on need. After the designated scholarship application period, the office of Financial Aid will assign scholarships to students.

Student Relief Fund

Students contribute regularly to the Student Relief Fund to provide emergency assistance to fellow students through the regular offering in chapel and designated gifts. The office of Financial Aid selects recipients of student aid money received by Mid-America.

Veterans Educational Benefits

Mid-America has been approved by the Tennessee State Approving Agency to certify veteran students and other eligible persons to receive benefits toward educational expenses from the Department of Veterans Affairs. Students who receive financial benefits from the Department of Veterans Affairs program are required to verify their current enrollment status at Mid-America monthly.

Records for veterans are maintained in the registrar's office. These confidential records are accessible to the student and are not released to others without the written consent of the student. Additional information regarding the release of veterans' records is published in the Student Supplement and Housing Handbook. Students intending to utilize veterans' benefits must contact the registrar's office each semester.

2018–2019 Tuition and Fees

On-Campus:	$315.00* per credit hour
Online:	$345.00* per credit hour
Audit:	$ 50.00 per course

*Students must participate in the GO! Program to qualify for this discounted rate. Students electing not to participate in the GO! Program will pay a $1,500.00 Exemption Fee per semester.

Additional Fees

Application Fee: $35.00 for new or re-admit application.

Add/Drop Fee: $5.00 for each course added or dropped after close of registration.

Campus Fee: $250.00 (per semester)

- Students enrolled in any residential class will be charged the campus fee only.

Technology Fee: $140.00 (per semester)

- Students who are enrolled in online classes only and are not enrolled in any residential classes will be charged the technology fee only.

Convenience Fee: 2.75%

- A 2.75% convenience fee will be charged for all payments by debit/credit card.

Late Registration Fee: $100.00 assessed after registration has closed.

Returned Check Fee/Business Office: $36.00 for checks returned to the business office.

- The child or grandchild of an alumnus will receive a discount of $150.00 for tuition and fees per semester. To receive this discount, the student must contact the Campus Life office each semester.

All student fees are subject to change without notice.

Tuition Payment and Fees

Application Fees

A $35.00 non-refundable application fee is required for each undergraduate application for admission to the College. This fee is not applicable to tuition or other student charges.

Readmission Fees

Students seeking readmission must submit a non-refundable readmission fee of $35.00 at the time the application is submitted. Students who have been out more than one semester but not exceeding five years may submit the Application for Readmission; after that time the student must submit the full application.

Financial Responsibility

Students are expected to be prompt and faithful in payment of all fees. All current financial obligations must be paid before a student can register for classes for the following semester and before grades, diplomas, or transcripts can be issued. Payment arrangements are considered part of registration and must be made by the registration deadline. Accounts must be paid in full before graduation. Mid-America reserves the right to secure a file report through Equifax to confirm the continued credit reliability of each student.

FACTS Tuition Management Program

The payment policy states that payment for the entire semester is expected at the time of registration for each semester. All payments will be accepted through FACTS, via E-Cashier, during each registration period. Payments may be made with check (ACH) or credit/debit card. FACTS will accept Visa, MasterCard, American Express, and Discover credit cards and bank debit cards. Cash, checks, Visa, MasterCard, American Express, and Discover will be accepted for full payments made in the business office. There is a 2.75% convenience fee charged for each payment when using a debit or credit card. If full payment cannot be made for a regular semester, students will have the opportunity to budget their payments by setting up a five-month payment plan through FACTS for the current registration.

FACTS will electronically draft the appropriate bank account for payment on the fifth of each month. An enrollment fee of $25.00 for the semester contract will be charged to budget payments through the FACTS Tuition Management system. Through the account, students will have the ability to check on the status of their account, the schedule of payments to be made, a listing of those payments already made, and a complete listing of all activity. Be advised that a hold will be placed on a student's SonisWeb account if a payment is returned for any reason.

Returned Check Policy and Fees

NelNet charges a returned check fee of $30.00 for any check returned to FACTS; Mid-America charges $36.00 for any check returned to the business office. Excessive returned payments by any student may result in a PAY IN FULL policy for that student at the discretion of the vice president for finance and operations. While participating in the FACTS program, no student may incur more than three Non-Sufficient Funds notices per monthly payment. Once three attempts to withdraw funds have been made, the student must make payment for that month in the business office. For each monthly amount due, if a payment attempt is returned the following procedure applies:

First incident: $30.00 NSF fee* and automatic SonisWeb hold;

Second incident: $30.00 NSF fee* and consultation with business office;

Third incident: $30.00 NSF fee* and payment due in the business office.

*Charged by NelNet and billed through FACTS

If a student misses three monthly payments due to NSF, the agreement will be terminated, and the remaining balance must be paid in full immediately. Please note that missing three different monthly payments differs from missing the same month's payment three times.

Third-Party Invoicing

Students may request the business office to invoice a third party for tuition payment. Proper documentation must be provided in advance of registering for classes. When requesting that Mid-America invoice a third party for the first time, students must make arrangements at least one week before registering for classes. Students that have previously participated in invoicing must secure and return new documentation at the start of each academic year in advance of registering for classes. Failure to submit paperwork or confirm third party approval in advance will delay registration and may result in additional fees.

Late Registration Fees

Late registration will incur an additional fee of $100.00 and is by appointment only. This fee may be waived for those that make an appointment before the end of the registration period. Payment of tuition is considered part of registration and must be made by the deadline or during a late registration appointment.

Graduation Fees

The graduation fee is $100.00. Campus Life will send graduation information to all upcoming graduates including the deadline for fee payment.

Paper Services

A Paper Cut account is automatically established for all students for wireless printing from computer to the copier in the library. Deposits of $2.00 or greater may be made to Paper Cut via cash or check in the business office. Each page printed from the student's paper cut account costs $0.05.

Students wanting to make copies by placing books or other materials on the copier in the library may establish a copies account. Minimum deposits of $5.00 may be made to copies via cash or check in the business office. Copies cost $0.05.

Textbook Expenses

If a required book or resource is unavailable online, then it will be available for purchase in the Mid-America bookstore, The Lions' Den.

Fees for Student Transcripts

Academic transcripts are released to other persons or institutions only with the written consent of the student involved. A fee of $10.00 is charged for each transcript. Transcripts are not released until all financial obligations to Mid-America have been satisfied.

Fees for Adding or Dropping Courses after Registration Day

An additional fee of $5.00 is charged for each course added or dropped by a student after the close of the regular registration time as indicated in the academic calendar. Tuition for dropped courses is non-refundable after the class has begun.

Refunds of Tuition Fees

Dropped Courses or Withdrawal from the College

Mid-America policy states that tuition fees are non-refundable after the start of classes. Tuition fees are still applicable if a student drops or withdraws from a course at any point during a semester unless the student qualifies under the exception policy.

Exception to the Non-refundable Fee Policy

An exception is made if a student is forced to drop a course or withdraw from the College during the first 12 class days of a semester due to personal or family illness or due to an emergency beyond the student's control. In such circumstances, the vice president for finance and operations may, at his discretion, authorize the refund of half the tuition fee paid for the semester. The vice president for finance and operations evaluates each emergency withdrawal.

Notary Public Service

The business office at the Cordova campus provides a notary public service for students and faculty at no cost.

Communication with the College Regarding Admission

Initial Contact

Requests about admission should be addressed to the following:

Admissions Department
The College at Mid-America
P. O. Box 2350
Cordova, TN 38088-2350
Telephone: 901-751-8453 or
800-968-4508
Fax: 901-259-0397
Web address: www.collegeatmidamerica.com
Email: admissions@collegeatmidamerica.com

Correspondence about Applications

The admissions office responds promptly to all inquiries after initial application materials are submitted. Inquiries are welcome by visiting our website or by telephone, using the above information. Applicants are notified as soon as the Admissions Committee has acted on the prospective student's request for admission.

Campus Visits

Prospective students and other guests are welcome to visit the campus. The admissions office arranges tours of the facilities, meetings with faculty and students, and classroom observation. Chapel services are a highlight of a visit. An admissions counselor will direct prospective students to the administrative offices, faculty members, or other personnel who are available to provide information, counseling, and prayer. Upon request, the admissions office will provide information concerning lodging while visiting the campus.

Dates for Student Admission and Registration

Registration Schedule

First time students are encouraged to enroll in the fall semester. Many multi-semester curriculum offerings begin only in August. Students may, however, enroll at the beginning of any of the academic semesters. Registration dates are listed on the academic calendar.

Deadlines for Application

Application deadlines are published in the academic calendar. Application for admission for undergraduate programs and all supporting documents should be received by the admissions office at least 30 days before the student's first registration to allow processing and consideration by the Admissions Committee. Students may register for classes only after receiving notification of admission approval.

Policy of Nondiscrimination

The College at Mid-America admits students of any race, color, national, or ethnic origin. The College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, age, national, or ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, or other school-administered programs. The rights, privileges, and activities accorded to students are given equally to all students who have been admitted.

Students with Disabilities

The College makes every effort to provide full access to higher education for all qualified students. Students with physical disabilities will be given all the assistance needed in order for them to succeed. All facilities are equipped with wheelchair access.

Regulations Concerning General Admission

Each prospective student should consider carefully the following regulations concerning admission before submitting any application materials:

Christian Experience and Conduct

The College at Mid-America is a Christian institution whose primary purpose is to provide training for effective service in church-related and missions vocations. Other levels of training are also offered. Examples include: business administration, organizational leadership, Christian studies, and biblical counseling. Applicants must have professed Christ as Savior for at least one year before registration. Maturity of character, personal integrity, and commitment are necessary for acceptable study.

It is required that students conduct themselves in a manner deemed by the College as consistent with biblical standards of moral purity. In particular, married students are expected to maintain marital fidelity, and single students are expected to maintain sexual abstinence. Departure from biblical standards of moral purity disqualifies individuals for admission or continued enrollment.

Regulation Regarding Divorce (BACS Pastoral Track/Associate Only)

The Seminary holds the position that marriage is intended to be a lifelong covenant between one woman and one man. The primary biblical passages that support this understanding are: Matthew 5:32; 19:3-9; Mark 10:9; Luke 16:18 and Malachi 2:16. Therefore, the Seminary seeks to honor God's original intention of marriage and views divorce as a serious matter.

While the College understands that marital situations are unique and divorce is a reality, the College will allow anyone who is divorced to apply for the bachelor of arts in Christian studies pastoral track or associate programs. Certain courses within the BACS pastoral track and associate degree will, however, be relegated to those who are called and meet the qualifications of a pastor or overseer in 1 Timothy 3:1-7 and Titus 1:5-9 (men only, not divorced, spouse not divorced). This regulation applies without exception both to those who are innocent parties of divorce and to others. Such a policy does not judge the manner of life of any divorced person.

Regulations Regarding Female Students

The College admits women as students to study for any program except for degree programs designed to prepare students to serve as ordained pastors (associate of divinity, bachelor of arts in Christian studies/pastoral track). Female students are welcome to audit or to take for credit any individual course offered in the curriculum for which they are otherwise qualified. This policy accords with the College's conviction that the ordained pastor of a church must be male. The following is the trustee resolution mandating this: "We believe that God has signally blessed women and has given them a position of honor and opportunities for service." However, we believe that Scripture prohibits a woman from serving as pastor of a church. The following Scriptures specifically refer to this regulation:

1 Corinthians 11:3 ff. This passage teaches that women are under the leadership of men. (This headship relates to functional relationships, not spiritual standing.) For a woman to serve as pastor/teacher reverses this creation ordinance.

1 Timothy 2:9–15. This passage is part of a larger context which outlines the qualifications of bishops (pastors) and deacons and forbids women to exercise positions of authority and teaching over men. Therefore, a woman should not be pastor of a church.

Genesis 2–3. In the record of Creation and the subsequent fall of man, Adam stood in a primary relationship over Eve. The ramification of this position was intensified by the Fall (i.e., the negative aspects of subordination of woman to man) but was in existence prior to the Fall. Thus, from Creation and in the Fall, the woman is subordinate to the man, which is the basis of Paul's argument in 1 Timothy 2:13–14 in which women are forbidden to teach or exercise authority over men in the church.

Admission to the Associate Program

In addition to the regulations concerning general admission, applicants for admission to the associate program must meet the following requirements:

Minimum Education

All applicants to the associate program must have graduated from high school or received a General Equivalence Diploma (GED). Students who have graduated from college with a baccalaureate degree will not be admitted to the associate program.

Conditional Admission

Exceptions to these published requirements must be approved by the faculty upon recommendation of the college committee. In such cases, students will be granted conditional admission. During this period, students are subject to the same limitations as students under academic probation described under Disciplinary Regulations in this catalog. Conditional admission will be removed after a student completes 15 semester hours at the College and keeps a grade point average of at least a C (2.0 on a 4.0 scale). Students granted conditional admission must attend the Student Writing Center under the supervision of their advisor and/or writing coach and complete course requirements.

ACT/SAT Scores

All applicants are required to submit scores from either the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) or the American College Test (ACT). The SAT code for Mid-America Baptist Theological Seminary is 7039 and the ACT code is 3934. Applicants who are 24 or older, or have passed 15 hours from (a) a regionally accredited college or (b) a college with AABC accreditation, and have maintained at least a C average are not required to submit these standardized test scores.

SAT and ACT scores are used as a basis of admission and are also used to help evaluate a student's ability to do college level work. Normally, an ACT score of 18 and/or an SAT score of 900 is required for admission. Conditional admission is granted in certain cases for scores below the norm.

Admission to the Bachelor Programs

In addition to the regulations concerning general admission, applicants for admission to the bachelor programs must meet the following requirements:

Minimum Education

All applicants to the bachelor programs must have graduated from high school or received a GED. Transcripts from all educational institutions are required. Official high school transcripts or GED test scores are required unless the applicant has more than 24 college hours. Only official transcripts will be accepted. The registrar's office of Mid-America reserves the right to judge which transcripts are official and meet institutional requirements. In no case will the College consider as official a transcript marked "Issued to Student."

Conditional Admission

All exceptions to published admission requirements must be approved by the faculty upon recommendation of the college committee. In such cases, an applicant will be granted conditional admission. During this period, students are subject to the same limitations as students under academic probation, described under Disciplinary Regulations in this catalog. Conditional admission will be removed after a student completes 15 semester hours at the College and keeps a grade point average of at least a C (2.0 on a 4.0 scale). Students granted conditional admission must attend the Student Writing Center under the supervision of their advisor and/or writing coach and complete course requirements.

Admission Procedure for New Students

Admission Classifications

A regular student is one who applies for admission to one of the programs offered by the College. A special student is one who applies to take courses but does not intend to complete requirements for a specific degree. Both regular students and special students must fulfill all admission requirements for the academic level at which they intend to register for courses.

Application Requirements

The college committee considers for approval applicants whose files are complete. These items are described in detail in the following paragraphs:

1. College Application Form
2. Application Fee ($35.00)
3. Autobiographical Statement
4. Photograph
5. Health Record/Immunization Form
6. Educational Transcripts
7. Criminal Background/Credit Reference Check
8. Bank Reference (International Students Only)

College Application Form with God-Controlled Life Statement

Application is made on an official form furnished by the admissions counselor or downloaded from www.mabts.edu. Along with the Official Application form, applicants answer questions acknowledging a commitment to God-controlled living over the previous 12 months. The information requested must be provided completely and accurately. It is best for the admissions office to receive these forms at least 30 days before registration.

Application Fee

A $35.00 application fee must accompany the application. This processing fee is non-refundable and it does not apply to tuition or other student fees.

Autobiographical Statement

Applicants must complete and submit an autobiographical statement on the official form provided. This statement includes a personal conversion to Jesus Christ.

Statement on reasons for seeking to study at Mid-America, water baptism, and calling to Christian ministry are required for the BACS pastoral track/associate degrees.

Photograph

A passport-style, studio-quality photograph of the applicant must be submitted. This photograph should be about 2.5 by 3.5 inches.

Health Record/Immunization Record Form

A physician must complete the official health record form provided in the registration materials. Elements of the form include a statement of the applicant's medical history and a record of any communicable diseases. The physician should indicate that the applicant is physically, emotionally, and mentally able to meet the challenges of college life. Appropriate supplemental medical documents may be submitted or may be requested.

Immunization records for measles, mumps and rubella (MMR) and chicken pox (vaccine or case documentation) are required for the state of Tennessee. Students under the age of 22 who plan to live in MASH must also show proof of meningitis immunization.

Educational Transcripts

Each program has a required prerequisite minimum education, which is described fully in the section concerning each degree. In general, an applicant must submit an official high school transcript or GED. The applicant is responsible for requesting that official transcripts be sent to the admissions office and for all expenses involved. Only official transcripts will be accepted. The registrar's office of Mid-America reserves the right to judge which transcripts are official and meet institutional requirements.

International students who apply must note the requirements concerning evaluation of their transcripts described in the section Admission Procedure for International Students.

Background/Credit Reference Authorization

Applicants must handle their current financial obligations, including student loans, consistent with the standards of the institution concerning financial integrity. The College will secure a report through a standard consumer credit association confirming the credit history of the applicant. Continued enrollment requires continued financial integrity, including acceptable credit standing.

Applicants must complete and sign a criminal and financial background check authorization form. This form authorizes the College to utilize a third party to search for criminal and financial records.

Bank Reference (International Students Only)

A bank statement is required from international students indicating financial responsibility in accordance with current immigration law. (See section on Admission Procedure for International Students.)

Time Limitation for Admission

Once applicants have been notified of approval for admission, they have one year from the date of notification in which to register for classes. After one year the application expires, and the applicant must begin the process again.

Personal References

The College reserves the right to request letters of reference in support of an application for admission. Personal references must be individuals who have known the applicant for at least a year; previous teachers are acceptable for this purpose.

When Admission Is Declined

Materials relative to application are considered confidential and the College has no obligation to disclose information regarding an applicant's being declined admission into the program to which application is made.

Admission Procedure for International Students

Applicants who are not citizens of the United States must meet the following additional requirements for admission:

Immigration Laws

Mid-America is authorized under federal law to enroll nonimmigrant students. All requirements of the Immigration and Naturalization Service of the United States must be satisfied before the applicant will be admitted. The International Student Affairs office will provide international applicants information about the Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant (F-1) Student (Form 1 20A-B). Applications from international students are considered by the designated committee of the various programs on the same basis as all other students.

Financial Responsibility

International applicants must submit documents demonstrating funds available or guaranteed support adequate for international travel, educational expenses, and living expenses in the United States. The College will provide a Financial Statement for International Applicants form that must be used for this purpose. This statement also requires certain designated affidavits that must be provided. The College, at its discretion, may require the applicant to submit an Affidavit of Support (Form I-134), which is issued by the Immigration and Naturalization Service of the United States Department of Justice.

The College will not accept financial responsibility for any part of an international student's support in connection with its academic programs. Beyond the low cost of tuition, the College is not in a position to provide financial support. Students must not depart from their home nation before receiving confirmation of admission approval and the Immigration I-20 form from the International Student Affairs office. International students are required to meet the financial deposit required by the College. The deposit is refundable to the student upon graduation or withdrawal.

Transcript Requirements

International applicants must meet the same academic prerequisites as United States citizens for the program for which they are applying. Official transcripts (translated into English) of all institutions of higher education that the applicant has attended must be submitted. If the applicant has received postsecondary degrees from an institution outside the United States, the academic vice president and/or an independent credentials evaluation agency may review these degrees. The applicant must pay for all expenses involved in this independent credentials evaluation process. The College will provide international applicants with information about this upon request. Applicants who received postsecondary degrees from a United States institution of higher education must submit official transcripts.

English Language Requirement

All instruction at the College is in English. Applicants whose indigenous language is not English must score at least 550 on the paper-based Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) or 79-80 on the Internet-based TOEFL. This examination must be completed no more than two years before admission to the College.

In the United States, information concerning the TOEFL examination may be received from the Educational Testing Service: P.O. Box 899, Princeton, NJ 08549. Outside the United States, information concerning the TOEFL is available from United States embassies, consulates, or information centers. The MABTS code number, 1712, must be used to report TOEFL scores.

Exceptions to this requirement are presented to the designated program committee, which must then be approved by the faculty. Students who have received a postsecondary degree from an English-speaking institution of higher learning, particularly from the United States, Canada, or Great Britain, sometimes are not required to take the TOEFL exam. This is not an automatic exception and is determined on an individual basis.

Conditional Admission

Because of the cultural, language, and educational diversity associated with living in a complex world, international students face a special challenge in succeeding at college studies. The college makes every effort to admit as students only those who are well-suited to its programs. However, the college always reserves the right to evaluate the progress of all students.

International applicants are admitted with the provision that their status and academic progress is reviewed at the end of the first semester of study and thereafter at the end of each year of study. The college may require remedial studies or restrict the academic course load of any student, including internationals, if these actions appear to be in the best interest of the student.

Readmission of Former Students

Out of School One Semester

No readmission requirements are imposed on students who have dropped out of school for one semester.

International students on an F-1 Visa must maintain continuous enrollment as a full-time student in order to maintain the visa status and avoid illegal residence in the United States.

Out of School More Than One Semester

Students who have not been enrolled for more than one semester but not exceeding five years, must submit an Application for Readmission. Applicants must complete a background check authorization form and answer the personal questions concerning God-controlled living. A non-refundable application fee of $25.00 must also be included. The designated program committee reviews these materials, and the applicant will be advised of any special requirements concerning readmission.

Graduated but Returning

Students who graduate from Mid-America and want to return within one calendar year of graduation must complete an Application for Readmission. A non-refundable readmission fee of $25.00 must be included with the application.

Registration Requirements and Procedures

Registration procedures are coordinated through the registrar's office. Registration is completed online, and students are responsible for registering for any academic semester in which they want to enroll. This procedure includes completing requests for information, selecting courses, and paying tuition.

Preparing for Registration

Students must gain financial and GO! Program clearance with four offices before they can register for classes for a new semester: the business office, to satisfy any outstanding financial accounts; the library, to pay any assessed fines; the student housing office, to satisfy any outstanding rent or fees; and Campus Life office concerning GO! Program responsibilities remaining from the previous semester.

Registration for Classes

Currently enrolled students may register for the following semester during the designated registration period. Students will have specific dates to register based upon the number of credit hours completed. A schedule of these dates will always be posted and publicized on-campus and on the college website, (collegeatmidamerica.org). The registrar's office will assist by providing students with a degree audit worksheet of their degree-plan requirements. Degree audit worksheets are also available on the college website.

If a student does not register during the designated registration period, he or she must register on the late registration day by setting up an appointment with the registrar and business office (see the academic calendar). In addition to selecting his or her courses, the student must finalize all registration requirements, including the payment of tuition for the previous semester as well as payment arrangements for the current semester.

New Student Orientation

New Student Orientation is held on-campus before the start of each semester for all new students. It is designed to give an informative and enlightening overview of life at Mid-America. Students are introduced to the different departments of the College and their designated functions. Important and helpful information is shared during the session. Contact the Campus Life office for information concerning dates and times of New Student Orientation.

Late Registration Day

During the regular academic year, late registration day is scheduled on the Monday before classes begin for each semester. If that specific Monday happens to be a holiday and the college is closed, registration will be the preceding Friday. Registration on this day will be done by appointment only. The appointments are made through the registrar and the business office. Students must finalize all official matters and verify courses on registration day. See the academic calendar to verify the specific dates of registration.

Late Registration Fee

Late registration will result in an additional fee of $100.00 and is by appointment only. This fee may be waived for those that make an appointment before the end of the registration period. Payment of tuition is considered part of registration and must be made by the deadline or during a late registration appointment.

Student Identification Cards

Student identification cards are produced for on-campus students (excluding audit students) during orientation. Student identification cards are used to access the building and various areas within the building; these cards also function as a library card.

Adding and Dropping Courses after Registration

Before the first day of class, courses may be added and dropped by contacting the registrar. There is no additional fee for adding and dropping courses before the first day of class. Tuition is non-refundable after classes have begun.

After the first day of any academic semester, courses may be added and dropped through the registrar only by email. There is a $5.00 charge for each course added or dropped. Courses may not be added after the fourth class session of any semester. Courses must be dropped before the 12th class session of the semester in order to be recorded as WP (Withdraw Passing) on the student's official transcript and will not be factored into the student's GPA. Any course dropped after the twelfth class session will be recorded as WF (Withdraw Failure) on the student's transcript and will be factored into the student's GPA as a 0.00. The GPA points may be replaced by a higher grade if the student retakes the course. In emergency cases beyond the student's control, the faculty may be petitioned to grant an exception.

The GO! Program

The Nature of the GO! Program

The College at Mid-America's heartbeat is to connect the classroom to the community. Reaching people for Christ was the basis upon which the school was founded, and this passion motivates the president, the faculty, the curriculum, and the chapel programs. Your presence at The College at Mid-America indicates that you share this motivation. The GO! Program exists to provide CAMA students with the opportunity to fulfill the mission of the school through community service.

The GO! Program is the demonstration of what the student learns in the classroom. Students are expected to fulfill the biblical command to love their neighbor and thus are required to serve in community service sites each week and report on the work completed. By serving weekly, the student connects the classroom to the practical aspects of community service.

GO! Program Assignments

Each student enrolled in the GO! Program must complete an average of one service hour per week during the semester. A list of service sites is provided by the College and students must fulfill 15 hours of service each semester. Opportunities include work with the prison ministries, urban outreach, the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Campus Crusade, hospital ministries, rescue mission ministries, church survey work, non-profit ministries, etc. Refer to the GO! Program handbook for a complete list of opportunities.

Chapel and Report Hour Attendance

The College meets for chapel services on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Tuesday chapel is dedicated for students to report on their experiences at community service sites in the GO! Program. The president and professors also report on their experiences during this required session. Thursday chapel is dedicated to a time of encouragement and spiritual edification through the preaching of God's Word.

Each student is required to attend chapel in its entirety every Tuesday and Thursday and report his or her GO! Program activities online weekly. A student is not allowed more than six absences from chapel during a semester or they will be placed on academic probation. Online students participate via video available on the Mid-America website.

A student unable to attend chapel on a regular basis as the result of a work conflict with essential outside responsibilities may petition for excused absences for the semester. Requests are submitted to the Campus Life office and must be renewed each semester (August and January). NOTE: Notification from an employer must be on company letterhead showing that the student's work schedule prevents chapel attendance.

Requirements for the GO! Program

To meet the requirements for the GO! Program each semester, students must satisfy two criteria:

1. Completion of an average of one community service hour per week. During registration each semester students must list the community service site in which they will be involved on SonisWeb to clear the hold that appears on their student account.
2. Students must not have more than six unexcused absences from chapel and report hour during the semester.

The Relationship of the GO! Program to Tuition Rates

The GO! Program is an integral part of training for every student enrolled at the College. Students failing to complete the requirements for the GO! Program are subject to payment of the $1,500 Exemption Fee for each semester the requirements are not met. Students choosing not to participate during the 2018-2019 academic year will pay the Exemption Fee for each semester in which they do not participate.

The Relationship of the GO! Program to Chapel and Report Hour Attendance

Students who do not satisfy the requirements for chapel and report hour attendance will be placed on academic probation the following semester. No student is permitted to graduate from the College without completing the chapel and report hour attendance requirements for each semester enrolled.

General Academic Regulations

The School Year

The regular school year is comprised of the fall semester (beginning in August), and the spring semester (beginning in January). Classes meet 50 minutes a day, three days per week (Tuesday through Thursday) throughout the semester. Three-hour evening courses meet either one hour and 15 minutes two days per week or two and one-half hours one day per week.

The Academic Week

Classes meet Tuesday through Thursday of each week from 8:00 a.m. to 2:20 p.m. Evening courses meet from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. on Mondays. Outside commitments conflicting with courses at the regularly scheduled times should be avoided.

Academic Advising

The College at Mid-America provides academic advising to all students to assist them in scheduling classes, to aid in selecting courses for effective training, and to help ensure timely completion of their course of study.

Students must meet with their advisors until all general education component classes have been taken. Academic advisors are available to meet with assigned students during registration of each semester and by appointment.

Student Counseling

Counseling is provided through several avenues. Students may make inquiry regarding any specific question or need at the appropriate administrative, academic, or faculty office(s). Mid-America has an “open-door” policy in which the faculty and administrative staff are available to provide personal counseling, advisement, prayer, and encouragement for students. As a courtesy, however, students should schedule an appointment when desiring to meet with a faculty member.

Student Absences

Student Attendance Expected

Students are expected to attend all scheduled class sessions. However, it is recognized that from time to time emergencies interrupt normal class attendance.

Maximum Number of Absences

To receive academic credit in a course during a regular semester, a student cannot miss more than nine class hours. A Monday night class equals three class hours. While recognizing that various occasions call for a student to leave class early, a student must be in class for at least half of the class time to be counted present; otherwise, an absence will be recorded. If a student is late to class three times it will count as an absence.

Petition for Faculty Consideration of Excessive Absences

If a student exceeds the maximum number of absences because of prolonged illness or extreme emergency, the student may submit a petition to the dean requesting the faculty to grant credit for a course. In such circumstances, credit may be granted for a course in which there are no more than 12 class hour absences. In no case is credit given for any course in which there are more than 12 class hour absences. A class hour is 50 minutes long. Students should contact the registrar's office for the proper form.

Founders' Days Attendance

Attendance at Founders' Days services is required for each student. All missed sessions of Founders' Days are counted as absences in each class for the first semester.

Student Responsibility for Official Announcements

Unless excused by action of the appropriate academic committee, each student is required to attend chapel each Tuesday and Thursday. In addition to GO! Program reports, important announcements are made about academic affairs and other significant matters. Official announcements are also posted in The Advisor, which is emailed to each student at their Mid-America address. Each student is responsible for awareness of such official announcements.

Attendance and Inclement Weather

Change in schedule or cancellation of classes because of inclement weather or natural disaster is announced daily on local radio and television. Cancellation of classes due to weather or natural disaster coincides with the closing of the Shelby County Schools; however, special provisions may be announced. If classes are canceled due to inclement weather or natural disaster on a day of final exams, exams for the missed day will be taken on the day the campus reopens.

Closings or delays for the Northeast campus are posted on the School Closing Network broadcast on the local television and radio stations.

Academic Load Regulations

The normal academic load is 15 hours (five courses) per semester during the regular school year. For purposes of student classification, an academic load of 12 hours or more per semester is full-time.

Requests to Exceed the Normal Load

First-year students are not allowed to take more than 15 hours per semester. After completion of 30 hours, a student who maintains a 3.0 average on a scale of 4.0 may request permission to carry 18 hours (six courses) during any given semester. Final approval is the responsibility of the College dean. Contact the registrar's office for more information.

Transfer of Academic Credit from Other Institutions

A student seeking to transfer academic credit from another institution must complete a Transfer of Credit Form. Each request is evaluated by the registrar's office. The College dean, and the college committee evaluate requests as needed. Transfer credit may be granted for previous education in institutions providing similar courses with equivalent standards and requirements. Transfer credits may be accepted from institutions listed in the Accredited Institutions of Postsecondary Education [published by the American Council on Education (ACE) in consultation with the Council for Higher Education (CHEA)] if the transfer hours are pertinent to the courses offered at Mid-America. No transfer credit is granted for courses taken by correspondence, extension programs, or distance learning programs unless such courses are included on the official transcript of an accredited institution. Transfer credit is granted only for courses in which the grade is C or higher. No remedial courses will be accepted. The student can transfer only the number of electives that are required for their specific program. The Transfer of Credit Form will not be officially reviewed until the student has been approved to attend Mid-America. Contact the registrar's office for the appropriate form.

Each student earning a degree must complete at least 30 hours of course credit from The College at Mid-America. Each program has a limited number of hours that can be transferred from another institution. Sixty-hour associate degrees have a limit of 30. The limit for a 120-hour bachelor degree is 90 hours.

Granting of Academic Credit for Previous Non-Academic Experience

No academic credit is granted for previous non-academic experiential learning activities or for related field experience toward the completion of requirements for any degree program.

Auditing Courses

Current students may request permission to audit courses for personal enrichment without receiving academic credit. Students auditing a course are not required to take exams in the audited course.

Class Assignments

Class assignments must be submitted on or before the due date announced by the professor. Late assignments may be reduced in grade or refused by the professor at his or her discretion. It is the prerogative of the professor to determine the nature, extent, and due date of makeup work. There is no obligation for the professor to provide makeup opportunity.

Examinations

Examinations during the Semester

All regular examinations must be taken at the time announced by the professor. Makeup tests may be reduced in grade or refused by the professor at his or her discretion. All makeup tests must be completed within two weeks at the time and place designated by the professor.

Final Examinations

A final examination is given in each class. Final examinations are to be taken at the time listed on the examination schedule. No test may be taken early, and a student absent because of illness or emergency must make up the examination at the instructor's discretion within two weeks. Take-home final examinations may be distributed at any point during the course by the professor and are due no later than the final day of the examination schedule. Final examinations may be rescheduled only by special petition to the college committee.

Incomplete Work

All work required in a course is due by the end of the semester. Incomplete grades (I) are given only when emergencies or physical difficulties prevent students from completing their work. Any course work incomplete at the end of the semester may be made up only at the discretion of the professor and in accordance with his or her instructions. A grade penalty will be assessed even though the student can make up the work. Any grade of Incomplete (I) must be removed within 30 days after the end of the semester or the grade automatically becomes an F.

Grading Regulations

Grading Scale

Grade point averages are determined on a 12-point grading system. The grade point value of each letter grade is listed below:

A	97–100	4.0 quality points per semester hour
A-	95–96	3.8 quality points per semester hour
B+	93–94	3.5 quality points per semester hour
B	90–92	3.0 quality points per semester hour
B-	87–89	2.7 quality points per semester hour
C+	84–86	2.3 quality points per semester hour
C	81–83	2.0 quality points per semester hour
C-	77–80	1.7 quality points per semester hour
D+	75–76	1.3 quality points per semester hour
D	72–74	1.0 quality points per semester hour
D-	70–71	0.7 quality points per semester hour
F	69 and below	0.0 quality points per semester hour

The 12-point grading system allows a student the possibility of graduating with a perfect 4.0 average. A cumulative grade point average of 2.0, however, will constitute the lowest passing average to graduate. A cumulative grade point average below 2.0 will be the basis for academic probation and will necessitate that students attend the Student Writing Center under the supervision of their advisor and/or writing coach and complete course requirements.

Course-Related Code Designations

I	Incomplete; becomes an F if not removed within 30 days after the end of the semester
TR	Transfer credit accepted from another institution
WP	Withdrawal before 12 class hours; no penalty
WF	Failure due to withdrawal after twelve class hours
FA	Failure due to excessive absences
AU	Audit completed
AW	Withdrawal from an audited course; no penalty
AN	Audit not completed; no penalty
AS	Advanced standing granted in a required course; alternate prescribed elective course to be taken
P	Pass
EX	Exempt
CO	Course completed

Failure of a Course

A required course in which a grade of F is received must be repeated until a passing grade is achieved. If a grade of F is received in an elective course, the course may be repeated or another elective course may be attempted. In either event, the cumulative grade point average of a student must be maintained at the level of at least 2.0 on a scale of 4.0 for the student to continue working toward graduation without restriction.

Student Writing Center

The Student Writing Center offers assistance to students through a course entitled Power Up, which covers topics such as planning, organizing, writing, editing, and revising research papers. Each semester, Power Up is offered residually for eight weeks on Wednesdays from 11:00-11:50 a.m. by a professor/writing coach or online through Moodle. Students who feel that they need assistance in writing papers may voluntarily sign-up for the course by contacting the Registrar's office at the beginning of the semester.

Other students may be required to take Power Up based upon certain criteria. Students enrolled in CN 4103/7103 Introduction to Biblical Counseling, EN 4900/7900 Introduction to Research and Writing, or NT 2601/5601 New Testament Survey 1 will be required to write a research paper which will be collected and graded by two outside reviewers at the completion of the semester. Students who do not make a 12 or higher on the Power Up rubric will receive an "Incomplete" for the course and will be required to attend Power Up, where they will be coached through rewriting the research paper. A composite score of 12 or higher on the second paper will reverse the "Incomplete" to a passing grade for the course.

For other criteria in which a student is required to attend Power Up, see the sections of this catalog entitled, "Conditional Admission," "Grading Regulations," and "Academic Probation."

Transcript Records of Grades

All grades are permanently recorded on the student's academic transcript and become a part of his or her scholastic record. An unsatisfactory grade (D or F) in a course must remain on the transcript and is used in calculation of the student's grade point average.

If a student repeats a course due to an unsatisfactory grade, the new grade is also recorded on the transcript. The last grade earned in the course is the grade used to calculate the student's grade point average. Students cannot repeat a course to raise a grade of B or C.

Grade Reports

Grade reports are available to the student through SonisWeb. Grades are generally posted approximately three weeks after final examinations.

Quality Points

Quality points are recorded as follows:

A = 4.0	A- = 3.8
B+ = 3.5	B = 3.0	B- = 2.7
C+ = 2.3	C = 2.0	C- = 1.7
D+ = 1.3	D = 1.0	D- = 0.7
F = 0.0

The total number of quality points earned in each course is recorded on the student's transcript along with the record of the course grade and the student's cumulative grade point average. The grade point average is calculated by adding the total number of quality points earned and dividing by the total number of academic hours attempted.

General Requirements for Graduation

To qualify for graduation from the College, students must fulfill the specific program requirements stipulated in this catalog regarding their degree. In addition, each student must satisfy the following general requirements for graduation:

Academic Credit Requirements

Of the total number of credit hours required for graduation in the student's degree program, he or she must complete 30 semester hours at Mid-America. Each student's cumulative grade point average must be a minimum of 2.0 on a scale of 4.0 to be eligible for graduation.

Financial Requirements

Before graduation, each student must settle all financial obligations to the College, including all payments for tuition, fees, bookstore accounts, library accounts, as well as any outstanding balances to Mid-America Student Housing for rent, late fees, etc.

Personal Behavior Requirements

As a prerequisite for graduation, each student must in the opinion of the faculty display a consistent Christian conduct and attitude and must demonstrate reasonable suitability for graduation.

Graduation Ceremony Requirements

To be awarded his or her degree, each student must participate in a formal graduation ceremony held by the College. Any request to graduate in absentia must be made for a valid reason beyond the student's control and must be approved in advance by the faculty. Forms for this petition are obtained through the registrar's office.

Student Grievance Policy and Procedure

Mid-America policy grants to the administration and faculty of The College at Mid-America the authority to develop and administer the processes for study and other issues related to student life. Students are expected to conform to expectations and standards of performance and conduct. The same policy that establishes the governance of academic and administrative affairs, however, allows the student the opportunity to seek recourse from what he or she considers to be unfair or unjust evaluations or processes.

Before completing the application for grievance for redress, the student should:

1. Review documents that address the situation: syllabi, policies and procedures, etc.
2. Prayerfully consider the validity of the grievance.
3. In keeping with Matthew 18, discuss the issue with the professor or administrator involved.
4. If the issue cannot be resolved at this level, then the student should follow the Student Grievance Process as described below.

It is the policy of The College at Mid-America to evaluate seriously student grievances and either resolve the problems brought by the student or make appropriate recommendations to the appropriate office for such resolution. Procedures are established below for addressing student issues in four sections: academic issues, administrative issues, harassment issues, and honor code violations.

The grievance process described below begins with the completion of student-initiated application for review, the Student Grievance Form. This form may be obtained from the Campus Life office or from www.mabts.edu and should be returned to the Campus Life office, as it is the responsibility of the director of Campus Life to coordinate the resolution process.

Section I - Academic Grievances

For Grievances of Academic Issues Related to Grades, Course Information, Course Content, Faculty Conduct, Performance, or Attitude.

The College specifically assigns to the individual faculty member responsibility for establishing grade criteria and the subsequent assignment of grades upon evaluation of student work.

(Matters related to dropping and adding courses are dealt with by petition through the registrar's office. Matters related to excessive absences are dealt with by petition through the college committee.)

In the case that a discussion of the issue with the professor or administrator involved does not resolve the issue, the following procedure should be followed:

1. The student completes, signs, and delivers the Student Grievance Form to the director of Campus Life, who will then contact the appropriate person(s) to attempt to establish a resolution to the grievance.
2. If the situation remains unresolved, the matter will be addressed by the dean of the College, who will attempt to establish a resolution to the grievance. The student may request that a student council representative or another faculty member attend the meeting as well.
3. The dean of the College will make a final decision concerning the grievance.

Section II – Administrative Grievances

For Grievances of Administrative Issues Related to Support Services

1. The student completes, signs, and delivers the Student Grievance Form to the director of Campus Life, who will then contact the appropriate persons(s) to attempt to establish a resolution to the grievance.
2. If the situation remains unresolved, the matter will be addressed by the executive vice president, who will attempt to establish a resolution to the grievance. The student may request that a student council representative or another faculty member attend the meeting as well.
3. The executive vice president will make a final decision concerning the grievance.

Section III – Harassment Grievances

Grievances of Academic or Administrative Issues Related to Sexual Harassment

The College at Mid-America respects the personhood of all individuals, regardless of race, color, national origin, sex, age, disability, or religion. The College, therefore, will not tolerate the abuse of individuals regarding these matters. It is the policy of the College to maintain an atmosphere free from all forms of harassment, which includes sexual harassment, whether verbal or physical.

This policy is directed at verbal and physical conduct that constitutes discrimination/harassment and is not directed at the content of speech. In cases in which verbal statements and other forms of expression are involved, Mid-America will give due consideration to an individual's constitutionally protected right to free speech and academic freedom.

Sexual harassment is prohibited by College policy as well as by federal and state law. Sexual harassment includes all unwelcomed sexual overtures or advances including, but not limited to, offensive jokes, comments, innuendos, or other sexually oriented statements; requests for sexual favors; and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

- Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly as terms or conditions of a student's academic achievement, or
- Submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as the basis for decisions regarding the student's academic status, or
- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a student's performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive learning environment.

If a student feels that he or she has been subjected to sexual harassment, the offense is to be initially reported to the president's office within 48 hours. A written complaint should include the name of the person(s) involved, the specific nature of the offense, and the date that it occurred. The president's office will conduct a thorough investigation of the complaint, and appropriate remedial action will be taken. Any information as is gathered will be treated as confidentially as practical. Where investigation confirms the offensive behavior, prompt corrective action will be taken with appropriate redress to the complaining party. Students reporting incidents of harassment or cooperating with an investigation thereof will be protected from reprisals in any form. The confidentiality of the parties involved will be protected throughout the investigation, and only those parties whom the president deems necessary to have knowledge of the case will be informed.

Any employee found to be guilty of violating this policy will be disciplined, up to and including termination. Likewise, disciplinary measures will be applied in any instance determined fabricated for malicious reasons.

If the student feels that he or she has been subjected to any type of harassment (other than sexual), the offense may be reported to the president's office, or the student may follow the steps below:

1. The student completes, signs, and delivers the Student Grievance Form to the director of Campus Life, who will forward the grievance to the president's office within 48 hours to establish a resolution to the grievance with appropriate personnel.
2. If the situation remains unresolved, the matter will be addressed by the president, who will attempt to establish a resolution to the grievance.
3. After a thorough investigation, the president will make a final decision concerning the grievance.

Section IV – Honor Code Violations

Each Student Agrees:

- I understand and will support and follow the Honor Code.
- I will not personally use unauthorized materials, and I will not participate with others in cheating.
- I will not facilitate cheating, and if I become aware of violations of academic or moral integrity, I understand that I have a responsibility to the Mid-America community and will at least say something to the student involved or discuss the situation with a professor or the appropriate dean.

Academic work is evaluated on the assumption and the expectation that the work presented is the student's own, unless designated otherwise. Anything less is unacceptable and is considered academically dishonest. Collaboration, plagiarism, and cheating—all defined below—are considered forms of academic dishonesty and students guilty of such are subject to disciplinary action.

- Collaboration: Submission of a paper that is paraphrased from, or identical to, another student's paper. A "paper" is defined as "any materials submitted by a student for credit in a course."
- Plagiarism: Submission of a paper in which substantial portions are paraphrased without documentation or are identical to published or unpublished material.
- Cheating: The improper use of books, notes, another student's tests, or other aids during an examination. It is the responsibility of the student to get approval for the use of such aids prior to the time of the examination, and without such approval they will be considered improper. An "examination" is defined as "any testing situation in which the score will be used for credit in a course."

Failure on a student's part to live up to this Honor Code becomes the concern of the appropriate dean and faculty advisor. (It is assumed, however, that any matter of concern in this area between members of the Mid-America community will first be dealt with according to the principles of Matthew 18:15–22.) All disciplinary matters are subject to review before a Student Disciplinary Committee. This committee is comprised of the dean of women or the dean of men, as chairperson, the faculty advisor of the student in question, the president of the Student Council, and one other faculty member. At the Northeast Campus, this Committee will be appointed by the Director of the Northeast Branch and will include one student participant.

“Due process” in dealing with disciplinary problems is primarily for protecting the reputation of a student against false or unsupported accusations. The purpose of disciplinary action is always redemptive, with every effort made to help the student involved to gain insight into his or her own needs and motivations. Where there is evidence of personality and character weaknesses that would make it unwise for a student to continue as a student, he or she is given counsel.

A student disciplinary committee will handle all cases referred to it by the appropriate dean and will be the appellate body for decisions made by the dean that are appealed by the student. The committee will handle any case involving the possible dismissal of a student; dismissal may only take place by action of the faculty. The student will receive a written statement of charges against him or her. He or she may be accompanied by a personal representative, may bring witnesses on his or her own behalf, and may choose not to answer any of the questions directed to him or her. If either the Student Disciplinary Committee or the student deems the advice of a lawyer necessary, such a person may give any advice he or she believes pertinent; but he or she may not enter the proceedings and/or deliberations of a student disciplinary committee.

Should the situation warrant it, the student may be given a warning, a disciplinary probation, a required leave of absence, or dismissal. Appeal of any action of the Student Disciplinary Committee may be made to the faculty in writing. Further appeal may be made after the faculty’s decision to the president. Such an appeal must be in writing, and a personal interview will be granted with the appeal.

If the student feels that he/she has witnessed a violation of the honor code, or if they themselves have violated the honor code, they are to take the following steps:

1. The student completes, signs, and delivers the Student Grievance Form to the director of Campus Life, who will then contact the appropriate person(s) to attempt to establish a resolution to the grievance.
2. If the situation remains unresolved, the matter will be addressed by the dean of the College, who will attempt to establish a resolution to the grievance. The student may request that a student council representative or another faculty member attend the meeting as well.
3. The dean of the College will make a final decision concerning the grievance.

Disciplinary Regulations

Unsatisfactory Academic Progress

A required course in which a grade of F is received must be repeated until a passing grade is achieved. If a grade of F is received in an elective course, the course may be repeated or another elective course may be attempted. In either event, the cumulative grade point average of a student must be maintained at the level of at least 2.0 on a scale of 4.0 for the student to continue working toward graduation without restriction.

Academic Probation

If a student’s cumulative grade point average falls below 2.0 on a scale of 4.0 at the end of any semester, he or she is automatically placed on academic probation for one semester. If the student raises his or her cumulative grade point average to the minimum requirement of 2.0 during that period, probationary status is removed. If the cumulative grade point average does not reach 2.0 by the end of the semester, however, the student continues academic probation for another semester. Students on academic probation must attend the Student Writing Center under the supervision of their advisor and/or writing coach to complete course requirements.

Each student placed on academic probation is assigned to direct supervision by the associate dean of the College in matters related to course schedule approval and remedial action. The associate dean prescribes appropriate academic limitations which may include: the maximum number of hours which the student can take during a semester; the sequential priority for scheduling previous courses which must be retaken and new courses which may be allowed; and the nature and extent of any counseling or remedial action deemed necessary. The associate dean reports the status of students on academic probation to the faculty.

Academic Dismissal

The College reserves the right to dismiss students whose academic progress is unsatisfactory. Students on academic probation for two consecutive semesters without raising their cumulative grade point average to the minimum 2.0 on a scale of 4.0 are subject to academic dismissal and may be required to withdraw from the College for at least one semester.

Veteran students on academic probation for two consecutive semesters without raising their cumulative grade point average to the minimum 2.0 on a scale of 4.0 are subject to academic dismissal and will have the veteran education benefits terminated until a 2.0 grade point average on a scale of 4.0 is obtained.

Disciplinary Dismissal

The locus of authority in dealing with discipline problems is the faculty through the dean of men, the director of Campus Life, the dean of women, and the Student Disciplinary Committee.

It is the desire of Mid-America to be responsive to the needs of the student in all areas of his or her life. Policies and procedures, therefore, in both academic and financial areas as well as personal, moral/ethical, and spiritual development have been established. These policies and procedures are intended to cover most circumstances that may arise; but it is recognized that on occasion there are situations that warrant special, individual consideration.

Suspension

A suspension may occur at the end of one probationary term for the following regular academic term(s) (the next fall or spring semester). Suspensions may be imposed on a student for the following situations:

- A student who fails to attain an appropriate standard of satisfactory progress or fails to comply with any condition and/or requirement imposed as part of the probation.
- A student who chronically withdraws from courses and does not make any academic progress may be suspended.
- An academically suspended student may be reviewed for readmission to The College at Mid-America after an absence of one semester.

Dismissal

A student may be dismissed from The College at Mid-America if he/she is granted readmittance after the suspension and fails to achieve a satisfactory cumulative grade-point average in the next term (semester).

Returning from Suspension

A student must write a letter of appeal to the Dean and apply for readmission after a suspension or dismissal period is completed. The student's record is reviewed and a decision is made regarding eligibility and conditions of return. Readmission to the College is not automatic and does not establish student eligibility for financial aid.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

All students who receive federal or state financial aid must be enrolled in a program leading to a degree. Students must meet federal and institutional standards for academic progress in order to establish and retain aid eligibility.

Academic progress for federal and state financial aid programs is based on three measures:

- Cumulative Grade Point Average.
- Pace of Progression based on credit hours completed compared to attempted.
- Maximum Timeframe for degree completion.

While the Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy is a minimum requirement to maintain financial aid eligibility, students are encouraged to work closely with academic advisors and college personnel to achieve their educational goals. Good financial planning includes selecting meaningful coursework, completing all registered classes with satisfactory grades, and seeking a degree in a timely manner.

The following describes the College's standards for each of these three measures, and how these standards are reviewed:

Cumulative Grade-Point Average

The following standards apply to the transfer/college cumulative GPA as determined by our current transfer GPA policy. Students must meet the following minimums which are consistent with the College's standard. Quality hours are those credits used to compute the grade-point average including grades of A, B, C, D, or F and transfer credits with a grade of incomplete. The first attempt of a course that is repeated is excluded from the quality hour computation.

Students must maintain a 2.0 cumulative GPA to receive federal and/or state student aid.

All students are required to complete a minimum of 67% of all credit hours attempted. Courses with a grade of "D" or better count as completed. Credit hours attempted include audits, incompletes, withdrawals, and repeated or failed classes.

Maximum Timeframe

The maximum timeframe for the completion of an undergraduate degree is limited by federal regulations to 150% of the published length of the degree program. Undergraduate programs at The College at Mid-America are 120 hours. The maximum number of hours during which a student is eligible to receive financial aid is 180. The 180 hours includes transfer hours and all attempted hours. A student fails the maximum timeframe standard when they reach the point that it is mathematically impossible for them to graduate before attempting 180 credit hours. Credit hours attempted include incompletes, withdrawals, and repeated or failed classes. Up to 30 hours of required remedial/ developmental courses are excluded from the maximum timeframe.

GPA, Pace of Progression and Maximum Timeframe are assessed for transfer students based upon information available from the Admissions office at the time the student matriculates.

GPA, Pace of Progression and Maximum Timeframe are assessed for continuing students annually at the end of each spring semester.

NOTE: If a student is on financial aid probation after having an appeal approved, SAP measurements will be reviewed at the end of each semester.

Notification/Appeals

After the end of each spring semester, the academic records of all students who are receiving or applying for federal financial aid will be reviewed. Students whose financial aid eligibility is suspended as a result of failure to meet one or more of the standards of satisfactory academic progress will be notified by the College.

According to federal regulations, financial aid appeals can only be approved for one semester at a time. If the appeal is approved, the student will be asked to accept and follow an academic plan designed by the College. After the plan is accepted, the student will be placed on academic probation, and granted an approved academic progress standing for one semester. The academic plan is designed to help students maintain financial aid eligibility while they bring their grades and/or completion rate back up to good standing. The student's grades and completion rate will be reviewed at the end of each semester.

When students have returned to good standing, they will no longer be on financial aid probation. If they have not regained good standing, but have met their academic plan for the semester, financial aid probation will be extended for one more semester with no need for a new appeal. However, students who are also failing the maximum timeframe standard will also be required to meet the graduation date listed on their graduation plan or submit a new appeal explaining why they were unable to do so, and include an updated graduation plan that has been approved by their academic advisor. Students who do not meet their academic plan, and do not return to good standing are no longer eligible to receive financial aid. Students are then responsible for paying their own fees and are not eligible for aid until the standards of satisfactory progress are met.

Students have the following options to maintain or restore financial aid eligibility:

- Improve academic performance enough to meet the standards,
- Successfully follow the academic plan as instructed and developed by the College, or
- Submit additional satisfactory academic progress appeals for different extenuating circumstances.

CAMA Standards of Conduct

In moral/ethical or spiritual development, the College recognizes the freedom of each student to develop under the leadership of the Holy Spirit. However, it must also be noted that students are preparing for positions as Christian leaders in the community. Thus, it is essential that they exemplify a God-controlled life both on and off the campus, conforming to the highest standards of conduct.

All members of Mid-America—trustees, faculty, administrative staff members, or students—assume the responsibility to conduct themselves in compliance with the objectives and standards of conduct established by the College. Misconduct that renders a member of the College liable for discipline, up to and including dismissal, falls into the following categories:

1. Dishonesty, including cheating, theft, plagiarism, forgery, or giving false information on official documents.
2. Obstruction or disruption of teaching, research administration, or Mid-America sponsored activities by force or violence or threat of violence.
3. Physical, verbal, written, or mental abuse or threat of abuse of another member of the College.
4. Theft or damage to Mid-America or community property or the personal property of a member of the Mid-America community, which includes taking materials from the library.
5. The use of tobacco, alcohol, or the abuse of controlled substances.
6. Solicitation to or participation in immoral relationships, including but not limited to sodomy, adultery, sex outside of marriage, or participation in same-sex relationships (“marriage”).
7. Any blurring of the boundary between maleness and femaleness, such as identifying oneself as a transvestite, transsexual, or transgendered, is contrary to biblical standards and is considered grounds for removal from the College.
8. Participation in or viewing of pornography.
9. Participation in spousal abuse, whether physical, verbal, mental, or psychological.
10. Unauthorized entry to or use of Mid-America facilities or equipment.
11. Failure to comply with directions of the president or other officers of Mid-America when acting in the performance of their duties.
12. Conduct which adversely affects the member’s suitability as a member of the Mid-America community or which interferes with the rights and privileges of another member of the Mid-America community.
13. The willful commission of any act which is a crime under the laws of the states of Tennessee that results in a criminal charge and conviction in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Academic work is evaluated on the assumption and the expectation that the work presented is the student’s own, unless designated otherwise. Anything less is unacceptable and is considered academically dishonest. Collaboration, plagiarism, and cheating—all defined below—are considered forms of academic dishonesty and students guilty of such are subject to disciplinary action.

1. Collaboration: Submission of a paper that is paraphrased from, or identical to, another student’s paper. A “paper” is defined as “any materials submitted by a student for credit in a course.”
2. Plagiarism: Submission of a paper in which substantial portions are paraphrased without documentation or are identical to published or unpublished material.
3. Cheating: The improper use of books, notes, another student’s test(s), or other aids during an examination. It is the responsibility of the student to get approval for the use of such aids prior to the time of the examination, and without such approval they will be considered improper. An “examination” is defined as “any testing situation in which the score will be used for credit in a course.”

Failure on a student’s part to live up to this standard becomes the concern of the director of Campus Life, dean of women, and dean of men. (It is assumed, however, that any matter of concern in this area between members of the College community will first be dealt with according to the principles of Matthew 18:15–22.) All disciplinary matters are subject to review before the student disciplinary committee.

Due process in dealing with disciplinary problems is primarily for protecting the reputation of a student against false or unsupported accusations. The purpose of disciplinary action is always redemptive, with every effort made to help the student involved to gain insight into his or her own needs and motivations as a student. Where there is evidence of personality and character weaknesses that would make it unwise for a student to continue in preparation he or she is given counsel.

A student disciplinary committee will handle all cases referred to it by the dean of women or dean of men and will be the appellate body for decisions made by the dean that are appealed by the student. The committee will handle any case involving the possible dismissal of a student, and dismissal may only take place by action of the faculty. The student will receive a written statement of charges against him or her. He or she may be accompanied by a personal representative, may bring witnesses on his or her own behalf, and may choose not to answer any of the questions placed on him or her. If either the Student Disciplinary Committee or the student deems the advice of a lawyer necessary, such a person may give any advice he or she believes pertinent; but he or she may not enter the proceedings and/or deliberations of a student disciplinary committee.

Should the situation warrant it, the student may be given a warning, a disciplinary probation, a required leave of absence, or a dismissal. Appeal of any action of the student disciplinary committee may be made to the faculty in writing. Further appeal may be made after the faculty's decision to the president of Mid-America. Such an appeal must be in writing, and a personal interview will be granted with the appeal.

The Student Disciplinary Committee

While not a standing committee, the Student Disciplinary Committee is appointed by the president to deal with disciplinary matters. The dean of women, dean of men, the academic vice president, the director of Campus Life, and the president of the Student Council Association serve on the committee. Other members are appointed as needed to deal with specific issues. This committee addresses specific student ethical or moral problems. After due and fair consideration, the student disciplinary committee, in consultation with the student involved, may recommend that disciplinary action be taken by the full faculty. The faculty has authority to impose loss of academic credit, probation, or dismissal, as appropriate to the seriousness of the situation. Information regarding student rights and due process is published in the Student Supplement and Housing Handbook.

Readmission after Academic and/or Disciplinary Dismissal

A student dismissed from the College for academic and/or disciplinary reasons must remain out of school for at least one semester or as otherwise stipulated in the notice of dismissal. If the student desires readmission after the conclusion of the stated period, he or she must follow the procedure set forth under the Readmission of Former Students section in this catalog, with the stipulation that the final approval of the terms of such readmission must be authorized by action of the faculty. Mid-America reserves the right to refuse readmission to any person who has been dismissed for academic and/or disciplinary reasons or to specify terms of readmission under conditional status.

Withdrawal from the College

Withdrawal Procedure

A student withdrawing from the College must complete the withdrawal form, which may be obtained from the registrar's office, and have it approved by the office of Campus Life, the library, the dean of the College, and the vice president for finance and operations. The form is returned to the registrar's office for final processing. This procedure enables the student to satisfy responsibilities to Mid-America and thus permits re-enrollment eligibility for readmission.

Withdrawal During an Academic Term

A student can withdraw without penalty during an academic semester by completing the withdrawal process within the first 12 class sessions of the semester. Withdrawal after 12 class sessions results in an automatic grade of WF in all classes unless an exception is granted by faculty action in the case of a severe emergency. See the drop/add procedures listed in the Registration Requirements and Procedures section of this catalog for further information.

Withdrawal by Default

A student failing to register for courses for two consecutive semesters (excluding summer or special terms) is considered to have withdrawn from the College. The student is responsible for completion of the withdrawal procedure.

Readmission after Withdrawal

A student who withdraws (whether by direct action or by default in enrollment) must apply for readmission under the current catalog.

Maintenance of Academic Records

Current Student Admission and Academic Records

Prospective student admission files are maintained in the admissions office and are available to the Admissions Committee and to the faculty. All other academic records are maintained in the registrar's office and are available to the faculty when offering counseling to a current student. Mid-America practices the highest confidentiality standards and fully cooperates with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA).

Continued Maintenance of Student Admission Records

Pertinent data for each student is stored along with his or her admissions records in the registrar's office. This information is maintained for a period of five years after graduation.

Cumulative Academic Transcripts

Cumulative transcripts of all academic work done at the College, along with transcripts from previous postsecondary institutions, are kept permanently. All permanent student records are maintained in the registrar's office. Transcripts are also saved electronically and stored in a secured off-site location.

Release of Student Academic Records to Other Persons and Institutions

Student admission and academic records are available for inspection by the student and authorized College personnel, but these records are regarded as confidential and are not released to unauthorized persons. Student academic records are released to another person or institution only with the written consent of the student. No transcript of a student record is furnished until all financial obligations to the College have been satisfied. A fee of $10.00 is charged for each transcript. Additional information regarding the release of student records is published in the Student Supplement and Housing Handbook.

Non-Traditional Programs

Purpose

Non-traditional programming offers quality education and training for effective vocations.....

Connected Campus (Online)

The College offers courses online through www.midamericaondemand.org. The purpose of this system is to provide educational opportunities for students whose residence and/or work schedule prevents them from attending residential classes.

Courses involve a variety of methodologies. Instruction may include video, PowerPoint, text instruction, and independent tasks such as research projects and papers. Some courses include hyperlinked projects, such as preaching videos, historical journals, biblical studies, and geographical mapping. Each class includes interaction through methods, such as chat rooms, forums, threads, email, and video conferencing. Quizzes, assignments, and tests may also be conducted through the online course management system.

Students and professors can interact through the various features of online courses. Enrollment occurs through the standard registration process.

Distance Education Privacy Policy

The College at Mid-America seeks to protect the privacy of students enrolled in distance education courses through the following means:

1. A student's coursework is viewable only by the course professor unless the student gives permission for specific information to be shared with others.
2. A student's grades are viewable only by the student, the professor, and the registrar's office.
3. A student's posts to online forums are considered part of the open class discussion and meet best practices expectations (Mid-America Posting Rubric) for student to student and student to professor interaction. Students should have the expectation of privacy within the online class for posts to these forums.
4. A student's emails or instant messaging to the professor are considered private and should not be made available to other students. However, should a student's communication violate Mid-America policies or include information that a professor is legally obligated to report; such communication does not have expectation of confidentiality.
5. Students who believe their privacy has been violated should contact the professor first. If no satisfactory result occurs, the student may make appeal to the institution through the Student Grievance Policy and Procedure.

Bridge Program

The College at Mid-America offers a bridge program that gives options to high school students to earn college credit. Through this program, a high school student may earn up to 24 hours of credit toward a bachelor degree. To earn the full 24 hours of credit, high school students must take four classes during their junior year and four classes during their senior year.

Students must meet the following requirements to participate:

- GPA 3.0 on a 4.0 scale (B average)
- A recommendation from the applicant's principal, guidance counselor or teacher

Bridge Program classes are follows:

- Introduction to Computing
- Introduction to Research and Writing
- World History 1 & 2
- Applied Mathematics
- Music Appreciation
- Introduction to Literature
- Introduction to Biology

No other undergraduate level courses will be available to students in the Bridge Program. Classes are available in two different formats:

- Residential Format (in classrooms during the fall and spring semesters)
- Online Format (during the fall and spring semesters)

Tuition for courses in the Bridge Program is the same for all new students, and is listed in the Tuition and Fees section of this catalog. There is no campus fee charge for these students.

To begin in the Bridge Program, a student should contact the admissions office at Mid-America. Students in the Bridge Program register through the same process as bachelor level students.

Introduction to Academic Programs

Academic Credit Hours for Courses

Mid-America reports academic credits in units of semester hours. Each course description listed represents a three-semester-hour unit.

Publication of Course Offerings

A schedule of required and elective course offerings is published each spring for the upcoming academic year. The registrar's office also maintains a proposed schedule of required course offerings for the following year so that students may plan for completion of graduation requirements.

Changes in Course Offerings

It is the goal of the College to provide a clear path for students who register for five courses per semester to graduate in the allotted time frame for his or her degree program. The College, however, reserves the right to change the times when courses may be offered, offer courses more than once a year, change or drop courses, and add new courses to the schedule during the school year.

Northeast Campus Programs

Certificate of Ministry Program in Ministry Preparation

Northeast Campus

A 24 hour undergraduate program of ministry preparation is offered at the Northeast campus. Upon completion of this program, the hours are transferable to the 60 hour associate of occupational studies degree.

Description of the Associate Level Program at the Northeast Campus

The associate level program is a postsecondary professional program intended for persons who hold a high school diploma or equivalency certificate, but who have not completed a baccalaureate degree. Associate degrees are designed to equip students for effective ministry within three areas of emphasis. The associate degree requires 60 semester hours of academic credit for graduation.

Educational Objectives of the Associate Level Degrees

In addition to the Seminary's general educational objectives, the associate program is designed to promote growth toward personal maturity and professional ministry competence in students. The objectives of the program are accomplished through classroom instruction, the modeling of professors, the practice of ministry through the Witness One:Seven program, chapel services, and student organizations.

Foundational Studies

The associate program seeks to guide students to understand and interpret the Christian faith in light of its biblical, theological, and historical dimensions and to utilize insights gained from these disciplines for the effective practice of ministry in the church, community, and world.

Essential Skills for Ministry

The associate program seeks to guide students to understand, develop, and utilize the essential skills for ministry in the effective performance of pastoral leadership roles in the church, including (according to degree emphasis) preaching, teaching, worship leadership, pastoral leadership, personal counseling, evangelism, missions, teaching, educational leadership, age-graded ministry, and administration.

Personal Growth and Professional Development

The associate program seeks to guide students to develop lifelong patterns of continuing personal growth and professional development.

Description of the Associate of Occupational Studies Degree (AOS)

The associate of occupational studies degree is a postsecondary professional degree intended for persons who hold a high school diploma or equivalency certificate (GED), but who have not completed a baccalaureate degree. This degree requires 60 semester hours of academic credit for graduation.

The educational and career goals of the AOS degree include training students for effective ministry as religious instructors, pastors, church staff members, and ministerial workers in the New York area and across the Northeast. The degree has approval and has been registered by the Board of Regents of the State Education Department of New York.

The AOS degree is designed to: provide quality ministry training for students who will pursue no further studies, be transferable into an accredited Bachelors program if the student chooses, and/or offer college level ministry training to students with GED or high school diplomas.

Emphases of the Associate of Occupational Studies Degree

Pastoral Ministry

The AOS with an emphasis in pastoral ministry seeks to guide students to understand, develop, and utilize the essential skills for ministry in the effective performance of pastoral leadership roles in the church, including preaching, teaching, worship leadership, pastoral leadership, pastoral ministry, biblical counseling, evangelism, and missions.

Church Ministry

The AOS with an emphasis in church ministry seeks to guide students to understand, develop, and utilize the essential skills for ministry in the effective performance of educational leadership roles in the church, including teaching, educational leadership, age graded ministry, administration, evangelism, and missions.

Completion Requirements for the Associate of Occupational Studies Degree

General Requirements

In order to qualify for graduation from The College at Mid-America, each student in the occupational studies degree must satisfy the General Requirements for Graduation as set forth in this catalog.

Course Requirements

Each student seeking the associate of occupational studies degree must complete the 60 semester hours of courses specified in the following chart, including 57 semester hours of required core courses and three semester hours of electives.

General Education Requirements

Each student pursuing the associate of occupational studies degree is required to complete a minimum of 15 semester hours of general education courses, with at least one course in each of three areas: the humanities or fine arts, the social or behavioral sciences, and the natural sciences or mathematics. The general education courses may be transferred from another postsecondary institution, or they may be completed within the required course structure of the associate of occupational studies degree.

Bachelor of Arts Program

Description of the Bachelor of Arts Program

The bachelor of arts program is a postsecondary professional degree program designed to equip students for effective Christian ministry in local churches, missions, or denominational service. This program requires a high school diploma or equivalency certificate, an ACT or SAT score, and the completion of 120 semester hours of academic credit for graduation.

Educational Objectives of the Bachelor of Arts Program

The bachelor of arts program is designed to promote growth in students toward personal maturity and professional ministry competence. The objectives of the program are accomplished through classroom instruction, the modeling of professors, the expression of community service through the GO! Program, chapel services, and student organizations.

1. To develop an understanding of the Bible and its relevance for today;
2. To develop a comprehensive theological framework within which to interpret God's message to man's need;
3. To develop a functional philosophy of Christian ministry in contemporary society;
4. To develop personal spiritual vitality and Christian character through Bible study, prayer, and devotional reading;
5. To develop appropriate skills required to preach, teach, and otherwise communicate the Word of God;
6. To develop appropriate skills required to exercise leadership positions in the church and denomination;
7. To develop the appropriate skills required to communicate the gospel and plant churches cross-culturally;
8. To develop a Great Commission worldview to encourage involvement in missions endeavors and support; and
9. To develop a personal commitment to and involvement in evangelism nationally and internationally.

Foundational Studies

The bachelor of arts program seeks to guide students to understand and interpret the Christian faith in light of its biblical, theological, and historical dimensions and to utilize insights gained from these disciplines for the effective practice of ministry in the church, community, and world.

Essential Skills for Ministry

The bachelor of arts program seeks to guide students to understand, develop, and utilize the essential skills for ministry in the effective performance of leadership roles in the church, including pastoral ministry, Christian education, missionary service, and biblical counseling.

Personal Growth and Professional Development

The bachelor of arts program seeks to guide students to develop lifelong patterns of continuing personal spiritual growth and professional development.

Major Concentrations

Both degrees in the bachelor of arts program contain a major component. Students choose a major concentration of study to complete their degree. The two major concentrations are biblical counseling and Christian studies.

Double Majors

Students may choose to double major in more than one field of study. This requires the completion of all major courses (12) within each field. Typically, a student must take an additional 12 hours of credit (4 courses).

Minor Concentrations

Both degrees in the bachelor of arts program contain a minor component. Students choose a minor concentration of study to complement their major studies. The minor concentrations are: biblical counseling, business administration, Christian studies, and organizational leadership. (NOTE: students in the BACS degree must take the BACS minor.)

Bachelor of Science Program

Description of the Bachelor of Science Program

The bachelor of science program is a postsecondary professional degree program designed to equip students for effective leadership in churches, organizations, and businesses. This program requires a high school diploma or equivalency certificate, an ACT or SAT score, and the completion of 120 semester hours of academic credit for graduation.

Educational Objectives of the Bachelor of Science Program

The bachelor of science program is designed to promote growth in students toward personal maturity and professional leadership. The objectives of the program are accomplished through classroom instruction, the modeling of professors, the expression of community service through the GO! Program, chapel services, and student organizations.

1. To develop a sufficient understanding of leadership theory within learning communities.
2. To develop critical thinking for effective leadership and management.
3. To develop sufficient understanding of personality and developmental theory.
4. To develop an understanding of management in relation to organizational change.
5. To develop a sufficient understanding of basic business practices.
6. To develop an adequate understanding of principles of finance.
7. To develop proficiency in the principles and problems of marketing goods and services.

Foundational Studies

The bachelor of science program seeks to promote growth in students toward personal maturity and professional leadership within the context of a corporate environment, the church community, and the world.

Essential Skills for Vocation

The bachelor of science program seeks to guide students to understand, develop, and utilize the essential skills for Christian vocation in business administration and organizational leadership.

Personal Growth and Professional Development

The bachelor of science program seeks to guide students to develop lifelong patterns of continuing personal spiritual growth and professional development.

Major Concentrations

Both degrees in the bachelor of science program contain a major component. Students choose a major concentration of study to complete their degree. The two major concentrations are business administration and organizational leadership.

Double Majors

Students may choose to double major in more than one field of study. This requires the completion of all major courses (12) within each field. Typically, a student must take an additional 12 hours of credit (4 courses).

Minor Concentrations

Both degrees in the bachelor of science program contain a minor component. Students choose a minor concentration of study to complement their major studies. The minor concentrations are: biblical counseling, business administration, Christian studies, and organizational leadership.

Cross Departmental

BH 2100—Basic Biblical Interpretation

A basic study of interpreting the Bible. The major focus is on the historical, grammatical principles of interpreting the biblical text.

Old Testament and Hebrew

Old Testament Survey

OT 2101—Old Testament Survey 1

A study of general issues pertaining to the Old Testament and the Pentateuchal and Historical books. Matters such as authorship, date, historical background, and critical theories will be discussed for the biblical books Genesis through Esther and their contents will be surveyed. An understanding of the Old Testament Scriptures is vital for those involved in ministry.

OT 2102—Old Testament Survey 2

A study of the Old Testament Poetical and Prophetic books, Job through Malachi. Includes a general introduction to Hebrew poetry and prophecy. Matters such as authorship, date, and historical background will be discussed for the biblical books, and their contents will be surveyed. Key theological themes of the prophets will be emphasized: holiness, salvation, Messiah, and eschatology.

Old Testament Intensives

OT 2200–2229—Studies in the Pentateuch

Studies to aid the student in confronting significant interpretive problems and in recognizing major theological themes. Individual books or significant doctrinal themes in the Pentateuch are studied. The selection of individual books varies from year to year.

OT 2230–2269—Studies in the Historical Books

Studies designed to promote a thorough grasp of individual books or selected historical periods. An introduction is presented to the important literature in this field. Intensive study of the biblical text is reinforced by expository lectures by the professor. The selection of individual books varies from year to year.

OT 2270–2299—Studies in Poetic Literature

Studies that consist of individual selections from the Psalms or Old Testament wisdom literature. Introductory material pertinent to this genre of literary expression, various literary forms used, and representative psalmic material are presented. Emphasis is given to major theological themes. The selection of individual books varies from year to year.

OT 2300–2399—Studies in Prophetic Literature

Studies which feature individual books from the major and minor prophets or outstanding prophetic themes. The student is introduced to the literature of the book studied, and special attention is given to major theological matters. Expository lectures accompany each lesson. The selection of individual books varies from year to year.

HB 2401—Hebrew 1

An introduction to the fundamentals of biblical Hebrew. Major emphasis is on the assimilation of basic grammatical forms and vocabulary. Students will translate selected texts from the Hebrew Old Testament and be introduced to exegetical methodology.

HB 2402—Hebrew 2

A continuation of HB 2401, which is a prerequisite for this course. An introduction to the fundamentals of biblical Hebrew. Major emphasis is on the assimilation of basic grammatical forms and vocabulary. Students will translate selected texts from the Hebrew Old Testament and be introduced to exegetical methodology.

New Testament and Greek

Note: Logos Bible Research Software (Silver Edition or above) is recommended for all courses in the New Testament Department.

NT 2601—New Testament Survey 1

A study of the interbiblical period, the first-century environment, includes a survey of the four Gospels, and the Book of Acts. Includes the unique features, contributions, and content of each Gospel as well as an assessment of critical methodologies in Gospel studies. The survey of Acts includes both matters of introduction and content.

NT 2602—New Testament Survey 2

A study of the epistles of the New Testament and the Apocalypse of John. Includes both matters of introduction and content.

NT 2700–2799—New Testament Intensives

A series of intensive studies in individual books of the New Testament. Although consideration is given to critical problems which relate to the book being studied, the primary emphasis is on interpreting the text. The selection of individual books varies from year to year.

GR 2801—Greek 1

An introduction to the grammar of the Greek of the New Testament. Includes areas of grammar significant to the interpretation of the New Testament and exegesis of selected passages in the second semester. Attention is given to areas of the Greek New Testament that are invisible to the English reader.

GR 2802—Greek 2

A continuation of GR 2801, which is a prerequisite for this course. Includes areas of grammar significant to the interpretation of the New Testament and exegesis of selected passages in the second semester.

Evangelism

EV 3200—Personal Evangelism

A study of the imperative of personal witnessing and various methods of presenting the claims of Christ. Emphasis is upon doing.

Missions

MS 3328—Church Conflict and Church Growth

A study of strategies to address and avoid conflict in our churches. Additionally, the matter of church growth during and after conflict will be studied.

MS 3370—Introduction to Missions

An introductory study of Southern Baptist missions, with emphasis upon the preparation, life, and work of the cross-cultural missionary. The first part considers the biblical basis, call, qualifications, and appointment procedure. The second part deals with field adjustment of the missionary family on the foreign field. The third part surveys the traditional methods of missionary work and examines current innovative approaches. Primary attention is given to international missions, with additional attention being given to North American missions. Two major objectives are: (1) to provide an adequate understanding of Southern Baptist missions and (2) to encourage each Mid-America student toward a personal commitment to missions.

MS 3405—Traditional Religions, World Religions, and Cults

A general survey of the major world religions and American cults, with a focus on Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Jehovah's Witnesses, and Mormons. The course examines basic concepts in these religions and is designed to help students understand the basic beliefs in order to contextualize the message of the gospel in appropriate forms and lead followers of these religions to faith in Jesus Christ.

MS 3500—Leadership in Missions

This course provides a study of the nature of Christian leadership, primarily in the context of international missions. Substantial attention is given to various character qualities and leadership competencies necessary for effectiveness in cross-cultural ministry. This course deals with issues related to discipling and equipping new Christians for church leadership. It also deals with the processes and procedures related to advanced strategic planning and team ministry.

Theological and Historical Studies

CH 3001—The History of Christianity

A concise survey of the history of Christianity from the first century to the present, focusing on the development of pivotal doctrines and ecclesiastical institutions in the Patristic, Medieval, Reformation, and Modern periods.

CH 3150—The History of the Baptists

An interpretive survey of the history of Baptists from the 17th century to the present. Three specific divisions include: (1) the rise and development of English Baptists, (2) Baptist beginnings in the United States to the formation of the Southern Baptist Convention, and (3) the history of the Southern Baptist Convention to the present.

CH 3160—Baptist Confessions

A systematic study of the confessional record left by Anabaptists and Baptists since the 16th century.
